Corporate Governance Statement

The Company is committed to conducting its business activities and governing the Company in accordance with the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council (Council) in the fourth edition of its Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Recommendations) to the extent appropriate to the size and nature of the Company's operations. This Corporate Governance Statement (Statement) details the extent to which the Company has followed the Recommendations, as at the date of the Statement.

The Recommendations are not mandatory, however the ASX requires that an entity explain why it has not adopted any particular recommendation on an “if not, why not” basis. Accordingly, in the table below the Recommendations that will not be followed have been identified and reasons provided for not following them along with what (if any) alternative governance practices the Company intends to adopt instead of the relevant Recommendation.

The Board is responsible for the overall corporate governance of the Company and is accountable to Shareholders in discharging its duties. The Board is committed to maximising performance, generating appropriate levels of Shareholder value and financial return, and sustaining the growth and success of the Company.

In conducting the Company's business with these objectives, the Board seeks to ensure that the Company is properly managed to protect and enhance Shareholder interests, and that the Company and its Directors, officers and personnel operate in an appropriate environment of corporate governance.

Accordingly, the Board has created a framework for managing the Company, including adopting relevant internal controls, risk management processes and corporate governance policies and practices which it believes are appropriate for the Company's business and which are designed to promote the responsible management and conduct of the Company.

The Company's corporate governance policies together with a copy of this Corporate Governance Statement are all available on PWA's website at <https://www.pwah.com.au/site/investor-centre/corporate-governance>, which is hosted on the Company's corporate website located at <https://www.pwah.com.au/site/content/> (Website).

This Statement was approved by the Board of PWA and is current as at 21 August 2023.

All corporate governance policies have been adopted by the Company. All references to “the Board” below are references to the board of the Company. All references to “Shareholders” below are references to shareholders of the Company.

Principles and Recommendations	Compliance by the Company
Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight A listed entity should clearly delineate the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management and regularly review their performance.
Recommendation 1.1 A listed entity should have and disclose a board charter setting out: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	The Company complies with this recommendation. The Board Charter (which is disclosed on the Website) sets out the principles for the operation of the Board and describes the functions of the Board and the functions delegated to management of the Company. Clause 2 of the Board Charter sets out the responsibilities and functions of the Board including those functions upon which the Board seeks guidance from the Board’s People and Remuneration Committee (PRC) under clause 2(b) and those functions upon which the Board seeks guidance from the Board’s Audit & Risk Committee (ARC) under clause 2(c). The Board may delegate consideration to a committee of the Board specifically constituted for the relevant purpose. Clauses 3 and 10 of the Board Charter set out the responsibilities delegated to the CEO, management and the company secretary.
Recommendation 1.2 A listed entity should (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive, or putting someone forward for election as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	The Company complies with this recommendation. Under the Board Charter, the Board aims to comprise a mix of directors with a broad range of skills, expertise and experience from a diverse range of backgrounds selected on the basis of relevant experience, skill, judgement and leadership abilities, to contribute to the effective direction of the Company. Clause 6 of the Board Charter notes that in considering any selection, appointment or re-appointment to the Board, the Board will consider the necessary and desirable competencies of any directors and proposed directors. Additionally, as required under clause 7 of the Board Charter, the Board will ensure that the Company undertakes appropriate background checks before appointing a person or putting forward to securityholders a candidate for election. Clause 6 also notes that the Board will ensure that the Company provides securityholders all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director. All of the Company’s current directors have undergone bankruptcy and criminal record checks as part of the Company’s due diligence process prior to its Admission to the ASX. Prior to the appointment of any future directors, the Board will also ensure that criminal record, bankruptcy and insolvency checks as well as any other background checks the Board considers relevant (such as with respect to character, experience and education), will be undertaken prior to the appointment of that person as required under clause 7(d) of the Board Charter.

Recommendation 1.3 A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	The Company complies with this recommendation. The Company has a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment, as required under clause 6(f) of the Board Charter and clause 3 of the PRC Charter in relation to directors and senior executives respectively.
Recommendation 1.4 The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	The Company complies with this recommendation. Clause 10 of the Board Charter provides that the secretary is accountable to the Board through the Chair on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board.
Recommendation 1.5 A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have and disclose a Diversity Policy; (b) through its board or a committee of the board set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executives and workforce generally; and (c) disclose in relation to each reporting period: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) the measurable objectives set for that period to achieve gender diversity; (ii) the entity's progress towards achieving those objectives; and (iii) either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (A) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole workforce (including how the entity has 	The Company complies with this recommendation. The Company has a Diversity and Inclusion Policy which applies to the employees and directors of the Company and subsidiaries. Clause 3 of the Diversity and Inclusion Policy provides that the Board is responsible for setting measurable objectives to promote gender diversity and the Company's progress in achieving them. The Diversity and Inclusion Policy's effectiveness is measured at least annually. The Diversity and Inclusion Policy is disclosed on the Website. Clause 3 of the Diversity and Inclusion Policy provides that the objectives set for a reporting period and the progress towards achievement of those objectives will be disclosed annually in the Group's annual report. This includes disclosure of the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole workforce of the Company. Progress on achieving the measurable objectives set for FY2023 and the FY2024 measurable objectives, which include those objectives carried over from FY2023, will be described in the Annual Report. For the reporting period ended 30 June 2023, the Diversity and Inclusion information will be included in the Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) section of the 2023 Annual Report.

Recommendation 1.6 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose for each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	The Company complies with this recommendation. Clause 8 of the Board Charter provides that the Board (with guidance from the PRC) will regularly carry out a formal review of its performance, its committees and each director. The Board will disclose in relation to each reporting period whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process. A performance evaluation of the Board, Committees and individual directors (Review) was undertaken during the reporting period ended 30 June 2023. The Review process was conducted by the Board Chair in Q4 2023 and involved completion of a written questionnaire by Directors and select Senior Management who interact with the Board, and discussions with each individual Director on their performance, and the performance of the Board and its Committees. The results of, and key observations from, the Review were discussed by the Board. The Chair’s performance was discussed by the Board with the Chair. The Board and Committees were found to be operating effectively, with a small number of areas identified for further focus, which have since been actioned.
Recommendation 1.7 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for evaluating the performance of its senior executives at least once every reporting period; and (b) disclose for each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	The Company complies with this recommendation. Clause 8 of the Board Charter provides that the Board (with guidance from the PRC) will regularly carry out a formal review of the performance of the CEO and other Senior Management against guidelines approved by the Board. Clause 8 notes that each year the Board will confirm that this review has taken place. A performance evaluation of the CEO and other Senior Management was undertaken in respect of the reporting period ended 30 June 2023 in accordance with Board and Company processes and requirements.

Principle 2 – Structure the board to be effective and add value A board of a listed entity should be of an appropriate size and collectively have the skills, commitment and knowledge of the entity and the industry in which it operates, to enable it to discharge its duties effectively and to add value.
Recommendation 2.1 The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (ii) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose (iii) the charter of the committee; (iv) the members of the committee; (v) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	The Company does not comply with this recommendation. As the Board only consists of four members, the Board has determined not to establish a separate nomination committee as the Board considers that such a committee is not necessary and would be burdensome at this time given such role a committee would play and the Board's current size and composition. The Board considers that it collectively has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively in considering the matters that would otherwise be considered by that committee. Clauses 6 and 7 of the Board Charter deal with the identification, nomination and evaluation of new directors and sets out the framework and processes it employs to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively. The Board is supported in that endeavour by the PRC and, where necessary, external consultants, and clause 3.3 of the PRC Charter describes the PRC's role in relation to developing and updating the board skills matrix, board performance evaluation and advising the Board in relation to board composition. The responsibility for Board succession planning is retained by the Board. The Board will keep this matter under review and, if deemed desirable or necessary, may constitute a nomination committee at an appropriate time in the future.
Recommendation 2.2 A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills that the board	The Company complies with this recommendation.

Principles and Recommendations	Compliance by the Company
currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Clause 5 of the Board Charter sets out the aim of the Board to collectively have an appropriate mix of skills, experience, expertise and diversity relevant to the Company's business and the Board's duties and responsibilities. As stated above, clause 3.3 of the PRC Charter describes the PRC's role to assist the Board to develop, review and update the board skills matrix. The Company's board skills matrix was reviewed during FY23 and is disclosed on the Website.
Recommendation 2.3 A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	The Company complies with this recommendation. The Company has disclosed: (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors (as at the date of this Statement, being Catherine West, John Ingram and Niran Peiris); (b) if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director. This information is disclosed in the Directors' Report (including in the Remuneration Report) (FY23 Annual Report at pages 22-24), and below. The approximate length of service of each director as at the date of this Statement is as follows: (a) John Ingram, appointed 6 April 2021: 2 years and 4 months (b) Niran Peiris, appointed 6 April 2021: 2 years and 4 months (c) Catherine West, appointed 6 April 2021: 2 years and 4 months (d) Paul Warren, appointed 1 April 2021: 2 years and 4 months
Recommendation 2.4 A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	The Company complies with this recommendation. Clause 5 of the Board Charter provides that the majority of the Board should, to the extent practicable given the size and composition of the Board from time to time, be comprised of independent directors. At the date of the Statement, the Board is comprised of three independent directors (being John Ingram (Chair), Niran Peiris (Lead Director) and Catherine West) and one non-independent director (Paul Warren).

Recommendation 2.5 The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	The Company complies with this recommendation. Clause 9 of the Board Charter provides that, to the extent practicable given the size and composition of the Board from time to time, the chairperson of the Board will be an independent director and must not hold (or held in the previous 3 years) the office of CEO. At the date of this Statement, the Chair of PWA is John Ingram, who is an independent non-executive director.
Recommendation 2.6 A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	The Company complies with this recommendation. Clause 11 of the Board Charter provides that new directors will be briefed on their roles and responsibilities and the minutes and papers of Board and committee meetings will be made available to them. It also provides that time will be allocated at Board and committee meetings for the continuing education of directors on significant issues facing the company and changes to the regulatory environment. Throughout the reporting period Directors participated in various informal education sessions and activities relevant to PWA's business operations, the motor vehicle industry and regulation generally. Clause 3.2(d) of the PRC Charter provides for the PRC to assist the Board in that endeavour by ensuring processes are in place to support director induction and periodically reviewing whether there is a need for directors to undertake continuing professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively. Further, as provided under clause 10(f) of the Board Charter, the company secretary together with the guidance of the PRC, and the assistance of the Board, will also help organise the induction of new directors and facilitate ongoing professional development training for the Board.
Principle 3 – Instil a culture of acting lawfully, ethically and responsibly A listed entity should instil and continually reinforce a culture across the organisation of acting lawfully, ethically and responsibly
Recommendation 3.1 A listed entity should articulate and disclose its values.	The Company complies with this recommendation. The values of Growth, Integrity, Focus and Teamwork (G.I.F.T) are disclosed on our website and are outlined in the ESG section of our Annual report.
Recommendation 3.2 A listed entity should:	The Company complies with this recommendation. The Company has a Code of Conduct which applies to employees, contractors, consultants, senior executives and directors of the Company. A copy of the Company's Code of Conduct is disclosed on the Website.
